After extensive conversations and consultation, the Wharf Boat & Yacht Show's Stakeholders Committee has decided to postpone, not cancel, next's week's show in Orange Beach, AL. A new date for the rescheduled 2020 Wharf Boat & Yacht Show will be announced soon.

"Collectively, we felt the decision to postpone the show for next week was one that had to be made. I can not stress enough that we are not canceling the 2020 Wharf Boat & Yacht Show, but we are postponing the show to a future date," said Scott Burt of The Wharf Boat & Yacht Show.

The Wharf Boat & Yacht Show is the premier boat show on the Gulf Coast featuring more than $150M in marine inventory, including 160 in-water yachts and 750 boats on trailers.
